Inclusion and diversity

Strathmore North Primary School is committed to creating a school community where all members of our community are welcomed, accepted and treated equitably and with respect regardless of their backgrounds or personal attributes such as race, language, religious beliefs, gender identity, disability or sexual orientation so that they can participate, achieve and thrive at school.

Strathmore North Primary School strives to provide a safe, inclusive and supportive school environment which values the human rights of all students and staff.

At Strathmore North Primary School, we are committed to fostering a culture of diversity, equity and inclusion.

We actively listen to, engage with and learn from the voices within our school community, recognising and valuing the broad range of abilities, family structures and cultural backgrounds that shape our collective identity.

This commitment is embedded in our curriculum, partnerships and celebrations – ensuring that all students, staff and families feel seen, respected and represented.

We support and affirm student agency in gender identity and expression, ensuring equitable access to leadership opportunities and school programs, regardless of traditional gender norms. Every student is empowered to participate fully and authentically in school life.

We also acknowledge and value Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, families and community members. Through our school Reconciliation Action Plan, we are committed to creating a culturally safe and inclusive environment where everyone is treated with dignity and respect. This aligns with Child Safe Standard 1: Culturally safe environments, which guides us to actively create a school where the diverse cultural identities of all students are respected, supported and celebrated.

At Strathmore North Primary School, inclusion is embedded in everything we do.

Strathmore North Primary School acknowledges and celebrates the diversity of backgrounds and experiences in our school community, and we will not tolerate behaviours, language or practices that label, stereotype or demean others. At Strathmore North Primary School we value the human rights of every student, and we take our obligations under anti-discrimination laws and the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities seriously.

Strathmore North Primary School will:

- Actively nurture and promote a culture where everyone is treated with respect and dignity
- ensure that students are not discriminated against (directly or indirectly) and where necessary, are reasonably accommodated to participate in their education and school activities (e.g. schools sports, concerts) on the same basis as their peers
- acknowledge and respond to the diverse needs, identities and strengths of all students
- encourage empathy and fairness towards others
- challenge stereotypes that promote prejudicial and biased behaviours and practices
- contribute to positive learning, engagement and wellbeing outcomes for students
- respond to complaints and allegations appropriately and ensure that students are not victimised.

Bullying, unlawful discrimination, harassment, vilification and other forms of inappropriate behaviour targeting individuals or groups because of their personal attributes will not be tolerated at Strathmore North Primary School. We will take appropriate measures, consistent with our Student Wellbeing and Engagement and Bullying policies to respond to students who demonstrate these behaviours at our school.

Students who may have experienced or witnessed this type of behaviour are encouraged to speak up and to let their teachers, parents or carers know about those behaviours to ensure that inappropriate behaviour can be addressed.

Reasonable adjustments for students with disabilities

Strathmore North Primary School also understands that it has a legal obligation to make reasonable adjustments to accommodate students with disabilities. A reasonable adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist students with disabilities to participate in their education on the same basis as their peers. Reasonable adjustments will be made for students with disabilities in consultation with the student, their parents or carers, their teachers and if appropriate, their treating practitioners. Our school may consult through Student Support Group processes and in other less formal ways. For more information about support available for students with disabilities and communicating with us in relation to a student's disability, please refer to our school's Student Wellbeing and Engagement policy or contact Libby Alexandraki, our Student Engagement and Wellbeing Officer for further information.
